Visiting Assistant Professor of Political Science

The Political Science Department at Austin College invites applications for a two-year position in American Politics (behavior) beginning in the Fall of 2016 (with the possibility of conversion to tenure track). ABD’s are encouraged to apply, Ph.D.’s are preferred. Commitment to, and evidence of, excellence in undergraduate teaching is required. Teaching load is 3-3 plus a January term once every two years. We invite applicants to demonstrate in their letter of application how they would contribute to the department’s desire for a well-rounded political science curriculum. While the person we hire will be on a two-year contract, we hope to convert the position to tenure track following evidence of excellence in teaching and an ability to enhance the profile of the department.

To apply, please email letter of application, C.V., copies of graduate transcript(s), a one-page statement of teaching philosophy, other supporting materials you wish us to consider, and two recent letters of recommendation to politicalsciencesearch@austincollege.edu, or you may mail your materials to Sheila Amin Gutiérrez de Piñeres, Vice President of Academic Affairs, Austin College, 900 N. Grand Ave., Suite 6D, Sherman, TX 75090-4400. Review of applications begins October 15, 2015 and will continue until the position is filled. If you have questions about the search, you may contact the Chair of the Political Science Department, Nate Bigelow, at nbigelow@austincollege.edu.

Located in North Texas, Austin College is a nationally recognized liberal arts college of approximately 1,300 students. Austin College is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Must be legally authorized to work without sponsorship for employment visa status (e.g., H1B status).