

Assistant Professor of Clinical or Counseling Psychology

Austin College's Department of Psychology invites applications for a tenure-track, assistant professor position in Clinical or Counseling Psychology, Ph.D. or ABD required, beginning August 2018.

Area of specialization is open, but we desire a candidate who teaches and practices evidence-based therapy techniques. A strong commitment to teaching excellence is essential. The successful candidate can expect to teach psychopathology, psychotherapy and assessment, and upper-level courses in clinical/counseling psychology. The ability to teach a subset of service courses for the department is highly desirable (e.g., General Psychology, Statistics for Psychologists, and/or Quantitative Research Methods). Our department supports a range of collaborative research and internship opportunities for undergraduates. We welcome applicants who are excited about conducting research with undergraduate students and placing students into internships in the surrounding community.

Austin College is a leading national independent liberal arts college located north of Dallas in Sherman, Texas. Founded in 1849, making it the oldest institution of higher education in Texas operating under original charter and name, the college is related by covenant to the Presbyterian Church (USA). Recognized nationally for academic excellence in the areas of international education, pre-professional training, and leadership studies, the College seeks to provide an academically challenging and lively community of students and teachers who are committed to intellectual growth through individual and collaborative endeavors. Austin College is one of 40 schools profiled in Loren Pope's influential book Colleges That Change Lives.

Candidates should include: letter of application, CV, copies of graduate transcripts, statement of teaching philosophy, and three letters of recommendation. Please combine materials into one PDF document and email to PsycSearch@austincollege.edu (preferred). Referees should send their letters to the same email address with your name in the subject line. We also accept hard copies mailed to Dr. Sheila Amin Gutiérrez de Piñeres, Vice President for Academic Affairs, 900 N. Grand Ave, Suite 6D, Sherman, Texas 75090-4400. For fullest consideration, all materials should be received by October 25, 2017.

Austin College is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer committed to a diverse faculty, staff, and student body and welcomes all applicants. Must be legally authorized to work without sponsorship for employment visa status (e.g., H1B status).
