

Assistant Professor of History

The History Department at Austin College invites applications for a tenure-track position as Assistant Professor in United States History since 1876. Teaching load in our 3-1-3 calendar (with a January term) will alternate between seven and six courses per year. We conceptualize the position to be based chronologically from the post-Reconstruction era through the Twentieth Century, with field of major specialty open. Ph.D. by August 2018 expected. Ability to teach Latino/a, environmental, and/or social and cultural history will be given preference. A commitment to teaching is of high priority, and evidence of successful undergraduate teaching experience is required.

Austin College is a leading national independent liberal arts college located north of Dallas in Sherman, Texas. Founded in 1849, making it the oldest institution of higher education in Texas operating under original charter and name, the college is related by covenant to the Presbyterian Church (USA). Recognized nationally for academic excellence in the areas of international education, pre-professional training, and leadership studies, the College seeks to provide an academically challenging and lively community of students and teachers who are committed to intellectual growth through individual and collaborative endeavors. Austin College is one of 40 schools profiled in Loren Pope's influential book Colleges That Change Lives.

To apply, candidates should include a letter of application, CV, statement of teaching philosophy, evidence of teaching effectiveness, copies of graduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation (may be sent separately). Please combine materials into one PDF document and email to HistorySearch@austincollege.edu (preferred). Referees should send their letters to the same email address with your name in the subject line. We also accept hard copies mailed to Dr. Sheila Amin Gutiérrez de Piñeres, Vice President for Academic Affairs, 900 N. Grand Ave, Suite 6D, Sherman, Texas 75090-4400. Applications will be accepted until Nov. 10, 2017.

Austin College is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer committed to a diverse faculty, staff, and student body and welcomes all applicants. Applicants must be legally authorized to work without sponsorship for employment visa status (e.g., H1B status).
