Assistant Professor of Business Administration with a concentration in Finance

The Economics and Business Administration Department invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance, beginning August 2016. We seek an experienced, dynamic, and caring academic professional with evidence of teaching excellence, a commitment to undergraduate business education, and the ability to teach courses in finance and strategic management.

Our faculty members teach three (3) courses per regular semester and a January-term course once every two years, and participate in college-wide interdisciplinary programs and service. They are responsible for delivering student-centered, hands-on, active instruction in order to prepare our students for success. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in a business field or an MBA. A minimum of 18 semester hours of graduate level finance courses and the ability to teach Strategic Management is required.

Austin College is a selective national liberal arts college with an enrollment of 1300 undergraduates located north of Dallas in Sherman, Texas. Founded in 1849, making it the oldest institution of higher education in Texas operating under original charter and name, the college is related by covenant to the Presbyterian Church (USA). Recognized nationally for academic excellence in the areas of international education, pre-professional training, and leadership studies, Austin College is one of 40 schools profiled in Loren Pope’s influential book Colleges That Change Lives.
