

CALAVERA

ART & POETRY CONTEST

Calaveras are skulls used to decorate for Día de Muertos in México. The word “Calavera” also refers to the traditional rhyming poems that depict the moment when death comes to take someone away.

Categories:

- ◇ Skull Art (painting, drawing, photograph, or sculpture)
- ◇ Calavera poem in Spanish
- ◇ Calavera poem in English

Awards: Cash Prizes!!

Cash and book prizes awarded in each category

Winners will be featured in Ida Green Projects Gallery

Eligibility:

Must be a currently enrolled student at AC

Deadline for Submission:

Wednesday, October 25, 2017,
by 3pm

Entry Rules:

- ◇ Participants may submit only ONE work for each category.
- ◇ All poetry entries MUST be original works, never before published, and written entirely by the participating student!
- ◇ Poems must be typed, double spaced, no longer than one page, and rhyme.
- ◇ For examples, see Center for Southwestern and Mexican Studies website.

<http://www.austincollege.edu/academics/centers-and-college-wide-programs/southwestern-mexican-studies/>

Submission Information :

- ◇ Four anonymous copies of each poem (DO NOT put your name on it)
- ◇ A 3x5 index card with your name, student ID#, phone number, and email address must accompany each art or poetry submission. Put all of the above in one envelope and mail to Wendy Wilson, Suite 61626 by Oct. 25
- ◇ Art submissions must be hand delivered to Wendy Wilson in AD 312

*For additional information, contact Julie Hempel via email at jhempel@austincollege.edu

