

"DONDE FUEREZ, HAZ LO QUE
VIERES"

MY ADVENTURE THROUGH THE HEART AND SOUL OF QUERÉTARO

BY: MARIA JARAMILLO

WHAT DID I DO?

Internship with the Universidad Autónoma of Queretaro in Queretaro, Mexico.

- 5 weeks
  - 1 week was exploring the sites
  - 4 weeks in our chosen area
- Presentations at the end of each week

THE FIRST WEEK

Exploring the sites!

- Explored the areas of Colon Ezequiel Montes
- Visited:
  - 10 possible sites
  - Chapels
  - Parks
  - Small businesses
- Where we stayed: Ex Hacienda de Ajuchitlan, Colon.
  - Writing like an anthropologist

MY SECOND HOME- LA PEÑA COLORADA

My partner and I stayed in Peña Colorada, Colon, Queretaro

- Smallest population compared to the other areas
- Agriculture based society
  - Seasonal agriculture
  - Losing its agricultural practices due to an increase in factories around area
  - Ejidatarions and comisarios
    - Don Agustin and Don Mateo
- Family
- Question: Will Peña Colorada still exist if I return in 10 years?

MOMENTS & DRAMA

Finally “adopted”

Hiking for service

Las Bandas

Brandon and “las tunas”

Water and heat

"DONDE FUEREZ, HAZ LO QUE VIERES"

