This application may be completed if your family's financial situation has significantly changed from the previous calendar year. Federal regulations provide financial aid administrators at colleges and universities the authority to make adjustments to the information provided on the FAFSA when special circumstances exist. Such circumstances may include the loss of employment or reduced income, separation or divorce, the death of a parent/spouse, unusually high medical expenses, natural disasters, or the inflation of the income reported on the FAFSA by a one-time event. Results of an appeal may vary from school to school as these are based on the professional judgement by a financial aid administrator.

Please note personal expenses such as the following are NOT eligible reasons to file an appeal: high mortgage costs, high credit card/consumer debt or purchase of a new vehicle.

Once your FAFSA has been processed, our office can review your appeal request. If you have not already filed a FAFSA, please complete the on-line application at www.fafsa.gov as soon as possible.

All applications must include the following:

1. All 2018 & 2019 W-2s for parent and student (student and spouse, if independent)
2. Signed copy of 2018 tax return with all schedules for parent and student
3. Signed copy of 2019 tax return with all schedules for parent and student, if you have already filed your 2019 taxes
4. Completed and signed Number in Household form
5. Signed letter explaining the circumstances you are appealing
6. Additional documentation relative to your particular circumstance (more details on next page)

Supporting documents for request

Certification, Authorization and Signatures

Under penalty of perjury, I certify that the information on this form is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that if I underestimate my income, I may lose eligibility for future aid and/or have to repay financial aid. Furthermore, I understand that providing false or misleading information in an attempt to obtain federal student financial aid is an act of fraud, punishable by a fine up to $20,000 and/or incarceration. I understand that I must provide all the requested supporting documentation listed on this form, and failure to do so will result in a denial of my appeal.

By signing this form I also authorize the staff of the Office of Financial Aid, at Austin College, to correct my 2020-2021 FAFSA application.
