Princeton Review Ranks Faculty 14th

School named one of "Best Western Colleges"

Austin College is one of the country's best institutions for undergraduate education, according to The Princeton Review. The 2011 edition of the annual college guide The Best 373 Colleges ranked the Austin College faculty 14th for academic excellence in the “Professors Get High Marks” category.

Austin College Named a Great Place to Work

For the third consecutive year, Austin College was named among the "Great Colleges to Work For" in a national survey conducted by The Chronicle of Higher Education. Austin College has ranked every year the survey has been conducted.

Wall Installation Illustrates Strength of Study Abroad

Thanks to the generosity of the Todd and Abby Williams Family Foundation of Dallas, a new wall installation in the Wright Campus Center illustrates exactly what has earned the College national recognition for its study abroad program.

Jacqueline Moore is Fulbright Scholar

Jacqueline Moore, professor of history, has been awarded a Fulbright Scholar grant to lecture at Hong Kong Baptist University (HKBU) during the 2010-2011 academic year, according to the United States Department of State and the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board.

Team Tackles Research

Todd Penner, the Gould H. and Marie Cloud Associate Professor of Religious Studies at Austin College, is spending his summer as a Scholar in Residence at Union Theological Seminary in New York.

ATP Students Host Summer Camp

When it's July in Texas, discussions of the weather generally come down to one word: hot. During the last two weeks of July, discussions among 50 elementary school students also included rain, clouds, hurricanes, and even blizzards.

College Names New Alumni Director

Cindy Curtis Bean has been named Austin College director of Alumni and Parent Relations, effective August 1, announced Brooks Hull, Austin College vice president for Institutional Advancement.

Athletics
Iwasaki Set to Take Division I Job
Head baseball coach Carl Iwasaki has stepped down from that position to become the head coach at the University of Northern Colorado. Iwasaki recently completed his sixth season at the helm of the 'Roos and leaves with a career record of 102-130.

2010 Football Season Preview
The Austin College football program begins a new era with a familiar face as former Kangaroo defensive coordinator Loren Dawson returns to Sherman to take the helm in 2010.

Alumni Honored at Legends Event
Austin College celebrated the success of athletics alumni and honored coaching achievements at the College's annual Legends awards dinner. The honorees included four Athletic Hall of Honor inductees, the Coach Joe Spencer Award for Lifetime Achievement and Meritorious Service in Coaching, and the Kedric Couch Alumni Coach of the Year award.