June 2013

Commencement of the 164th Year

The Commencement of the 164th academic year of Austin College sent more than 350 new alumni into the world, with well wishes from friends far and near. Carolyn Hessler-Radelet, deputy director of the Peace Corps, provided the Commencement address. She, along with Baccalaureate speaker the Reverend Dr. Alfred Morgan ’67, and Dallas oilman Jerome Fullinwider received honorary doctoral degrees from Austin College President Marjorie Hass. Catherine Stodola ’13 spoke on behalf of the Class of 2013. Members of the Class of 1963 were on campus for their 50th year reunion and received anniversary medallions and induction to the College’s Golden ’Roo Society.

Click here to change a life

Scholarships open windows that will transform today’s students into tomorrow’s global citizens. Make a gift before Austin College’s fiscal year ends on June 30!

- A Wide-Angle View
- Faculty Scholarship a Priority
- Student Research Awarded
- Classics Professor Honored
- More News

Register online today for Legends Weekend

The weekend kicks off with the ’Roos Reception on Friday night, followed by the awards dinner on Saturday, and wrapping up with the golf tournament on Sunday.

- Student-Athletes Earn Awards
- SAAC and SCAC Donate to Special Olympics
- Baker Named NFCA Third Team All-West
- Women’s Soccer Welcomes Seven New ’Roos
- Kangaroo Spotlight: David Smith
- More Athletics News