November 2012

College Mourns Death of Sophomore Amaud Hassan

The Austin College community was deeply saddened to learn of the death of sophomore Amaud Hassan, 19, of Denison, Texas, in a single vehicle accident in Whitewright, Texas, Friday evening, November 2. According to police reports, Amaud apparently lost control of his 2007 motorcycle on a curve. Amaud lived in Denison with his family, which includes his sister Sara, a senior at Austin College.

The campus community extends thoughts and prayers to Sara, her parents, Aziz and Mehfooz Hassan, and the entire family at this tragic time.

A traditional religious ceremony for the family was held Monday afternoon at the Islamic Association of North Texas in Richardson. The family will gather with friends Tuesday, November 6, from 6 to 8 p.m. at Kelly Square in Sherman. An on-campus memorial service will be held Wednesday, November 7, at noon in the small chapel of Wynne Chapel.

Read the Obituary in the Herald-Democrat.
Share your memories and condolences.

Ten Minutes with Marjorie Hass
In his editorial introducing the October 15 edition of Presbyterian Outlook, editor Jack Haberer wrote about meeting Austin College President Marjorie Hass.

Make your Alumni Board Nominations today
Homecoming 2012 Photos
Cummins Takes Part in History
College Hosts Court of Appeals
More News

New Athletics Website ACRoos.com
The Athletics Department is pleased to announce the launch of ACRoos.com, a new athletics website to highlight Kangaroo athletics and make AC part of the Presto Sports network.

'Roo Caravan Rolls Into San Antonio
Three from 'Roo Volleyball Earn All-SCAC
Volleyball Coach Ed Garza Earns 500th Victory
'Roo Women's Basketball Season Preview
More Athletics News