Remember AC this holiday season! | Show your support today.

As you make your holiday gift list this year, don't forget Austin College! Have you ever wondered what a gift to our Annual Fund might provide? The Annual Fund supports a wide range of experiences, from classroom instruction to Jan Term travel. For example:

- $25 can cover office supplies for a faculty member for one semester.

- $50 can purchase one soccer ball, one basketball, and one football for our 'Roo athletes to use at practice.

- $100 can outfit one general chemistry student with glassware to use for an entire academic year.

- $500 can purchase one dedicated classroom computer to support instruction and student presentations.

- $1,000 can fund one peer tutor for one semester at the Academic Skills Center.
Every gift makes a difference for our community! Thank you for your generous support of all the things that make Austin College special.

Mark your calendars now for two important dates in the coming year.

The annual Kenneth Street Law Symposium is slated for Friday, February 17, 2017. This year's topic is "The Law & Social Change." More details of the sessions and CEU credits will be announced in mid-January.

Don't miss the 2017 Austin College Posey Leadership award presentation by recipient Professor Vikram Patel. An esteemed psychiatrist, researcher, and professor, he directs international programs on mental health in India and England. Patel will present a campus lecture March 28 and receive the award after a 7:30 p.m. presentation at the Perot Museum in Dallas on March 29.
As the semester winds down, and students complete finals and head home for the holidays, we pause to say thank you for your support of Austin College in 2016. We look forward to being back in touch with more news in the new year, as students and faculty head out for JanTerm, more events are announced, and winter and spring sports gear up for competition.
