President's Scholarship Challenge

President Steven P. O'Day, J.D., has announced the $1 million President's Scholarship Challenge that continues through June 30. The College needs to raise an additional $2.5 million each year to fund student merit- and need-based aid. So far this academic year, generous donors have given or committed almost $1 million for scholarships. Help us meet the remaining need; visit www.austincollege.edu/giving and designate your gift to scholarships. All gifts, regardless of size, make a difference for students. Let's meet the challenge!

Posey Leadership Award | April 3-4, 2018

Southwestern & Mexican Studies Program Seeks Matching Funds

Austin College was selected by the National Endowment for the Humanities to receive a $50,000 matching grant to expand the Southwestern & Mexican Studies internship program. To remain eligible for the matching funds, Austin College must raise the first $25,000 by April 2018 and the remainder by April 2019. “Summer internships give these students experiences that enrich their education and provide staffing support for organizations that are dedicated to the humanities,” said project director Julie Hempel, associate professor of Spanish and department chair for Classical and Modern Languages.
