

May 5, 2020

Dear 'RooNation,

I am so proud of how everyone in the Austin College community has responded to the unprecedented disruption that COVID-19 has brought to our daily lives. We have listened and planned and made decisions thoughtfully. We have persevered through challenging times to reach the final week of classes.

I look to our future with that same pride and sense of promise. We anticipate and it is our intent to resume regular face-to-face classes and return to residential campus living this fall, continuing the tradition of legendary teaching and learning that is our hallmark. The first day of classes is scheduled for Tuesday, August 25.

Of course, we will continue to monitor current public health conditions locally and around the world, which may dictate some changes in how we do things on campus. Nevertheless, I am confident that we will work together to make whatever adjustments are needed. More details for Fall Term 2020 will follow throughout the summer.

We look forward to 'RooNation coming home.

Sincerely,
