

AColyte

June 12, 2020

A Journal of Faith, Doubt, and Other Things
at Austin College

what does the Lord require of you
but to do justice,
and to love kindness,
and to walk humbly
with your God?

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN...

America

2020

Trying to Lean Into the Discomfort

what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

--Micah 6:8

Justice.

Kindness.

Humility.

Those things are absolutely relevant at this moment in our life together.

It's a pretty ambitious To-Do list.

I'm a 58-year-old white man.

This doesn't feel like the time for me to be talking and writing.

I need to be listening and reading.

I need to be doing, loving, and walking.

I'm gonna try to do that.

I'd appreciate any guidance or company that you care to offer.

Until next time, I remain,

Just Another Cowboy Preacher,

Eager to Commit Justice, Kindness, and Humility,

JOHN WILLIAMS

Chaplain