Reflections on Remote Learning and Looking Toward Fall

Johnson Center Lunch
May 7, 2020
Reflection Questions

● What was your best teaching experience during remote learning?

● What did you learn (pedagogically, technologically, about yourself, etc.) that you will take with you to the fall semester and beyond?

● What are you looking forward to once we resume face-to-face instruction?
A Look Back

February 3: Start of the spring semester
March 9: Spring break
March 16: Extended spring break
March 23: Remote Instruction until…. April 10?
April: The “new normal” for spring 2020
Reflect? Why? How?

We do not learn from experience... we learn from reflecting on experience.

John Dewey
What I (We) Missed this Semester

Community
ACSC
Johnson Center events
Honors Convocation
Posey Leadership Award
Commencement
...and more
What Happened this Semester
What I Learned

The most impactful moments for me this semester involved grace.

The Lesson of Grace in Teaching by Francis Su
Reflection Questions and Discussion

● What was your best teaching experience during remote learning?

● What did you learn (pedagogically, technologically, about yourself, etc.) that you will take with you to the fall semester and beyond?

● What are you looking forward to once we resume face-to-face instruction?
Toward Fall

“Liberal education is an approach to learning that empowers individuals and prepares them to deal with complexity, diversity, and change.”

-AAC&U

Upcoming Workshop and Resources: May 20 from 9:30AM-11:00AM