Austin College continues the tradition of intentional reflection that leads to action that welcomes and supports all people.

Established Inclusion and Diversity Task Force

Spring 2016
The Task Force took initial steps to survey the Austin College community and assess the collected data to make recommendations to the Senior Leadership Team.

Established President’s Inclusion & Diversity Committee

Fall 2017
Works with President Steven O’Day to make recommendations that support an inclusive, diverse campus culture and curriculum. The Committee evolved from the Diversity and Inclusion Task Force.

Diversified Hiring Practice

January 2019
Raised the diversity among staff and faculty by using non-discriminatory practices to hire under-represented people, such as: people of color, immigrants, LGBTQ+ community members, people with disabilities, and those who were first-generation college students.

Expanded the Curriculum to Include Diversity Requirements

Fall 2019
Compass Curriculum requires at least one course each in Global Diversity and in Systems of Power, Privilege, and Inequality, which are met in a variety of courses taught across disciplines.

Expanded Title IX Training

May 2020
Trained the Title IX Coordinator, Deputy Coordinator/Compliance Officer, and all employees on new Title IX policies from U.S. Department of Education using web videos, interactive sessions, and workshops.

Committed to a Diverse Alumni Board Membership

June 2020
Alumni Board renewed its commitment to intentionally nominate and approve Alumni Board candidates who raise the diversity of the board.

Strengthened New Student Orientation Resources

Fall 2020
Campus Orientation programming strengthened to include resources and support regarding anti-harassment, anti-discrimination, misconduct, and reporting processes.

Continued to Improve Anti-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policies

Fall 2020
Based on Fifth Circuit case law and EEOC expectations, the College has updated policies about how to report a problem, what to expect, who gives support, and how discrimination and harassment complaints are resolved.

Implemented Employee Title IX Training

Summer 2017
Mandatory employee training to understand Title IX expectations about anti-discrimination, harassment, misconduct, reporting processes, and how to receive support.

Revamped Title IX Staffing and Policies

Spring 2018
Reviewed, revised and updated the College’s existing Title IX policy resulting in Title IX staff increase, policy updates, and extensive training across campus.

Re-Imagined New Student Orientation

Fall 2019
Re-imagined campus orientation to include first-year cohort groups for people of color, first-generation college students, and queer students to build community with current students, faculty, and staff from the same cohort.

Committed to Diversifying Board of Trustees Membership

May 2020
Board of Trustees renewed its commitment to intentionally nominate and approve Trustee candidates who raise the diversity of the board.

Launched a New Division for Communication

May 2020
Institutional Marketing & Communications (IMC) strategically delivers consistent branding and messaging with particular attention to inclusion and diversity.

Added Director of Student Success and Transitions Position

July 2020
The position is dedicated to developing individualized assistance to all students, and is especially meaningful to first-generation students or others who are struggling academically, socially, or with their overall well-being.

Added Inclusion and Diversity Requirements for Faculty Hiring

Fall 2020
The Academic Affairs Committee researched and developed policies consistent with non-discrimination laws to promote the representation of underrepresented groups among the faculty. These include a hiring-for-diversity checklist and information about barriers to faculty diversity. Parts of the checklist were initiated in fall 2020. All faculty searches will follow all of the guidelines starting in fall 2021.

Allyship Training for Senior Leadership, Faculty & Staff

Spring 2021
The Johnson Center will sponsor Learning Communities to cover anti-racist allyship using common reads, such as So You Want to Talk About Race by Ijeoma Oluo.
