ICE (In Case of Emergency) INFO

AC Alert is part of Austin College's Emergency Alert System for on-campus safety and security. It allows college administration to issue a message quickly via text message, voice message, and email to inform you of situations on campus that may include severe weather, Fire/HazMat, security threats, closures, and other immediate circumstances. Your primary personal cell phone number is required.

You can have as many ICE contacts as you want. If more contact entry spaces are needed, submit what you have entered, and then return to this page to add more. You can add AC Alert for up to 2 of your ICE contacts by checking the AC Alert box by the contact's information. For students, at least 1 contact for each category of Emergency Contact, Missing-Person Contact, and AC Alert must be checked.

Housing Contract for the New Freshmen Housing Appl

* = Required

Student Name Katie Roo Student ID # 0935427 Academic Year 2018

Austin College Residence Hall Occupancy Contract

This is a legally binding contract between Austin College, acting through Student Life, and students who are enrolled as full-time and degree-seeking. In consideration of payments made and to be made as provided herein, the student is entitled to occupy residence hall space and is entitled to the services provided by Student Life, subject to the terms and conditions set forth.

Terms and Conditions

Residence Requirements and Eligibility

Students admitted as first-year matriculates, with a CI year assignment, must live in on campus housing designated by Austin College for a minimum of six (6) fourteen (14) week semesters, including January Term or the equivalent of three academic years. Transfer matriculates, without CI year assignment, must live in on campus housing for a minimum of four (4) fourteen (14) week semesters. Only those students who have completed their residency requirement or who already fulfill any other exemptions to the residency policy will be allowed to live off campus.

Period of Contract

The contract, when appropriately signed and submitted, becomes effective upon its acceptance by Student Life and is binding for the FULL ACADEMIC YEAR.

Occupancy

A) Students must occupy assigned rooms on the opening day and time announced prior to each semester. Failure to occupy an assigned room by midnight of the first day of classes may be considered a cancellation of contract (see Cancellation of Contract) unless arrangements for late entry have been made with Student Life prior to the day of opening. B) This contract does not provide to the student the right of occupancy between academic terms or during College holiday periods. The student must checkout of the residence hall by the advertised closing time. Students who have not checked out with the appropriate staff by the specified time will be assessed a $50 fine and a $30 per night occupancy fee until checkout. C) This contract permit occupancy during January Term to students enrolled in credit bearing January Term courses or those who have prior approval for related activities. Students who are not enrolled in January Term must request permission to live in residence halls from Student Life. D) Occupancy of rooms is allowed only by students to whom the room is assigned. E) Rooms may not be sublet to another person.

Room Assignment

A) Acceptance of this contract does not guarantee assignment to a specific room or particular type of accommodation. It does, however, guarantee the student a space in a residence hall. The College reserves the right to change room or hall assignments, to assign roommates, or to consolidate vacancies. B) All changes in room assignments and/or roommates

Carefully read
each statement and check the corresponding box.

Authorized Entry

Personnel authorized by the College may enter assigned residence hall space for inventory, maintenance, or safety and security reasons. Inspections and searches may be conducted as outlined in the Austin College Environment (Student Handbook).

Rules and Regulations/

A) Students are responsible for knowing and observing College rules, regulations and procedures as set forth in the Austin College Environment (Student Handbook), Outback Guide, the AC Bulletin (General Catalogue) and the accompanying Further Terms and Conditions and the adopted living plan, which are incorporated here by reference. B) The College reserves the right to make additional rules and regulations as its judgement may be necessary for safety, care and cleanliness of the premises and for the preservation of good order. C) Student Life agrees to make reasonable effort to inform students of any regulation changes or pertinent policy information.

Food Service

A) Students are required to be on a 7 Day Meal contract during their freshman year. Students living in Johnson Roo Suites and those who are in their 3-4 semesters, regardless of where they live, are required to be on at least a 5 Day Meal Plan. B) Cooking of meals on a daily or regular basis is not permitted in the residence halls. C) Student ID meal cards remain the property of Austin College. D) Food services is not available for days between the close of January term and the opening day of the Spring term.

Room and Board Rates

Charges for room and board are included in the Austin College Schedule of Charges for the academic year, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Room Care

All assigned residence hall spaces are to be kept clean and orderly by the student and are to be used for residence only. Charges will be made for damages to or unauthorized use of or alterations to any assigned spaces, equipment or buildings, and/or special cleaning of assigned spaces necessitated by student negligence. Resident students are jointly and severally responsible for the care of any public areas or equipment.

I verify that I am age 18 or older at the time of submission.
