

SENIOR RECOGNITION

Emily Aller will attend The University of Texas Health Science Center Long School of Medicine in San Antonio, Texas.

Mackenzie Bolen will attend the University of Florida College of Medicine to pursue a Ph.D. in Biomedical Sciences with a concentration in Neuroscience. She received full tuition and a stipend.

Reagan Chiaverini will attend the Colorado School of Public Health at Colorado State University.

Anjana Chowdiah has accepted a position as Associate Financial Representative at Modern Woodmen of America in Dallas, Texas.

Callier Creedle Reynolds will attend the Austin (College) Teacher Program to pursue a Master of Arts in Teaching degree.

Kolbie Banks will attend the Austin (College) Teacher Program to pursue a Master of Arts in Teaching degree.

Brittney Dang will attend The University of Texas Medical Branch School of Medicine.

Makayla Dunlap will attend graduate school at Colorado State University.

Ashley Elliott will attend graduate school at Alder University, where she received the Alder University's merit scholarship.

Lihlu Fuentes has been accepted to The University of Texas at Austin; Washington University at St. Louis, where she was offered the Dean's Scholarship; and the University of Chicago for social work, where she was also offered the Dean's Scholarship.

Megan Goyal will attend McGovern Medical School in Houston, Texas.

Bayleigh Green will attend Rice University's Jones Graduate School of Business in its Master of Accounting Program, where she received a scholarship.

Brianna Groves has accepted a position as a User Experience Production Designer for Lowe's.

Nadia Hannon will attend graduate school at The University of Texas at Austin.

Nye Y. Howard will seek employment in the international relations field.

Erik Huang will attend the Austin (College) Teacher Program to pursue a Master of Arts in Teaching degree.

Milan Jaiswal will attend McGovern Medical School in Houston, Texas.

Prathik Jogi will attend The University of Texas at Dallas and pursue a master's degree in Information Technology and Management.

Alyssa Longaker has been accepted to Washington University of St. Louis, University of Illinois Chicago, and University of Houston.

Danielle Lozano has been accepted to Texas A&M Commerce for a master's program in Health, Kinesiology & Sports Studies with an Athletic Administration Concentration, with a Graduate Assistantship in Athletics.

Zachary Magers will attend the Thunderbird School of Global Management at Arizona State University, where he received the Thunderbird Alumni Scholarship.

Emily McMillan has been accepted to Texas A&M Texarkana and the University of North Texas.

Lauren A. Mioton will continue teaching secondary English Language Arts and Reading (ELAR) and coaching school sports. She also plans to pursue an additional Master of Education degree.

Ndanzia "Paul" Mpunga will attend The University of Texas Health Science Center Long School of Medicine in San Antonio, Texas.

Mason Norris has accepted a position as a teacher and coach at Allen Independent School District in Allen, Texas.

Esther Park has been accepted to the University of North Texas Health Science Center School of Pharmacy, Texas A&M University Rangel School of Pharmacy, and the Touro College of Pharmacy.

Matilyn Perry will attend graduate school at Austin College to pursue a Master of Arts in Teaching degree.

Sydni Philip will attend Oklahoma City University to pursue a Doctor of Physical Therapy.

Nancy Piñeda Gama has accepted a position as a Program Co-Director at Vogel Alcove in Dallas, Texas. She will work to incorporate more STEM and SEL into the school-age program curriculum and is excited to use her passion for education and science to serve students and communities in need.

Mikaela Randle will attend graduate school at Southeastern Oklahoma State University.

Madeleine L. Reinhardt will attend Cleveland State University in the master's program for Clinical Psychology.

Krista Rodriguez will attend The University of Texas at Dallas to pursue dual master's degrees in Business Analytics and Accounting.

Andrea Selkow has been accepted to Colorado State University, Fort Collins, and The University of Texas, Austin; she plans to pursue her Ph.D. in Chemistry.

Preston Spivey will attend the University of Oklahoma College of Law.

Jake Tidwell will attend University College London to begin study in their Master of Arts in Film Studies program.

Jake Thomas has accepted a position with Accelebrate 2020 LLC, a political consulting firm.

Melanie Tillar will expand her businesses in Dallas and Sherman to a third location in Austin.

Vincent Ton has accepted a position as Documentation Analyst at JP Morgan in Fort Worth, Texas.

Addison O. Walling will attend George Washington's Milken Institute of Public Health to pursue a Master of Public Health degree.

Regan Wilkins will attend Southern Methodist University's Dedman School of Law, where he received the Dean's Scholarship.

Solomon Wyatt will train to become a death investigator.

Richard Zhu will attend graduate school at Texas Tech University Health Science Center.