Dr. Helen Lowman

Commencement Speaker | Doctor of Humane Letters

DR. HELEN LOWMAN has been President and CEO of Keep America Beautiful since 2017, offering abundant leadership experience in areas of international diplomacy and development, youth engagement, environmental education, disaster resilience, global leadership, volunteerism, social justice, and human rights.

From 2010 to 2017, Dr. Lowman served as an appointee of the President of the United States in the senior foreign service and the senior executive service, working at the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) in Washington, D.C. She held several roles in the Peace Corps, including directing the agency's largest U.S. headquarters' office and working with leadership on strategic reforms related to volunteer recruitment and admittance. She earlier served as Regional Director-Europe, Middle East, and Asia, Peace Corps' largest geographic region.

Dr. Lowman earned her master's degree and Ph.D. in Leadership and Change from Antioch University and a master's degree in International Economics and Development from the University of Denver, Joseph Korbel School of International Studies. She served as a Peace Corps volunteer in Thailand for three years upon graduation from Austin College in 1988.

The Reverend Amos Jerman Disasa

2021 Baccalaureate Speaker | Doctor of Divinity

REVEREND AMOS DISASA is Senior Pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Dallas. He previously served as a co-pastor of Downtown Church in Columbia, South Carolina, a church he launched in 2011. Founded with only three members—Disasa, his wife, and their baby son—the church was chartered three years later with 230 members. He had previously served as Associate Pastor at Eastminster Presbyterian Church in Columbia.

Born in Ethiopia, Amos moved with his family to South Carolina as a young child. Eventually, he earned a bachelor's degree from Presbyterian College and a Master of Divinity degree from Wake Forest University.

Known for compelling and challenging sermons, Rev. Disasa is a frequent speaker at national gatherings. Described as a tireless advocate for those on the margins of society, he helped to start several organizations serving the homeless in South Carolina. Today, he serves with others as a steward of The Stewpot, a pioneering ministry of First Presbyterian Church, dedicated to responding to the unmet and emerging needs of the homeless and at-risk in Dallas.

He and his wife, Sarah, along with their two children, live in Dallas.

The Reverend Amy Poling Sutherlun 2020 Baccalaureate Speaker | Doctor of Divinity

REVEREND AMY POLING SUTHERLUN is Co-Pastor of First Presbyterian Church of San Marcos, Texas, with her husband, Joshua '01. They met at Austin College, where Amy graduated summa cum laude in 2000 and earned a Master of Arts in Teaching degree in 2001.

Deviating slightly from her family's six-generation tradition of pastoral ministry, she initially served in other ways, including mission work in Malawi, Africa, and teaching in inner-city Dallas schools. She and Josh attended Princeton Theological Seminary and soon married.

Upon completion of her degree and her ordination, Amy spent eight years as Associate Pastor of Young Adults at First Presbyterian Church of Huntington, West Virginia. The family moved to San Marcos in June 2013. Amy says her passion in ministry is exploring and witnessing the intersection between people's stories and the unfolding story of God's work in the world.

Amy and Joshua have four children. With parenting and pastoring, Amy says their family life is full of laughter, liturgy, and laundry.

President Steven P. O'Day Austin College President | Doctor of Humane Letters

STEVEN P. O'DAY, J.D., became the 16th president of Austin College on October 30, 2017. Under his leadership, the College has completed a record-setting $125 million fundraising campaign, achieved record first-year enrollments, implemented new curricular and co-curricular initiatives, realized important capital improvements, and welcomed the first minority/majority population on campus—all part of a bold strategic vision designed to position Austin College for enduring success.

President O'Day describes his career in higher education as “being driven by a deeply held belief that we are called upon to personally educate and support the whole student—mind, body, and spirit. This belief is grounded in a blending of the liberal arts and specialized training necessary for lives of significance, leadership, service, and integrity.”

Having begun his career as an attorney, President O'Day entered education through a coaching opportunity. That venture into higher education altered the course of his career, and soon he was in senior leadership at Franklin & Marshall, then Lebanon Valley College in Pennsylvania. Twenty years later, he and his wife, Cece—a former teacher and swim coach—are welcome members of the Austin College community.
