

Philosophy, Politics, and Economics Concentration

Updated Fall 2022

STUDENT NAME: _____ AC ID: _____ DATE: _____

Major Concentration (select 1)
Philosophy Concentration		Political Science Concentration		Economics Concentration
Course	Characteristics	Course	Characteristics	Course	Characteristics
1		1		1
2		2		2
3		3		3
4		4		4
5		5		5
6	300 level or above	6	300 level or above	6	300 level or above
7	300 level or above	7	300 level or above	7	300 level or above
8	300 level or above	8	300 level or above	8	300 level or above
Bridge Course (one course above)		Bridge Course (one course above)		Bridge Course (one course above)
Capstone Course (one course above)		Capstone Course (one course above)		Capstone Course (one course above)
				Supporting Courses
				MATH 120
				MATH 151

Minor Concentration (select 2 not selected as the Major Concentration)
Philosophy concentration		Political Science concentration		Economics concentration
Course	Characteristics	Course	Characteristics	Course	Characteristics
1		1		1 ECO 101
2		2		2 ECO 102
3		3		3
4	300 level or above	4	300 level or above	4	300 level or above
Bridge Course (one course above)		Bridge Course (one course above)		Bridge Course (one course above)

Students electing the Philosophy, Politics, and Economics concentration do not have to select a minor to meet graduation requirements.

Refer to the Austin College Bulletin for full degree plan requirements and nuances. This tool should be confirmed with the department or program advisors and mentor.