

The Kappa Fountain, the oldest fountain on campus, anchors Windsor Mall on Grand Avenue and is as fresh as ever with trickling water gleaming in the Texas summer heat. It was built in 1924 with funds from Kappa Gamma Chi Literary Society as part of the College's Diamond Jubilee Celebration. The fountain was relocated and rebuilt in 1965 and was incorporated into creation of Windsor Mall in 1974 in connection with the 125th anniversary of the College.

Austin College Summer Music Camp Hits a High Note

Summer break can be a time for vacation fun—and for 92 high school and middle school students, an opportunity to learn more about music. From June 12-16, young musicians in strings, woodwinds, brass, percussion, and choral music spent five days immersed in learning at Austin College Summer Music Camp 2023.

Now in its second year, the camp was presented by the Sherman Symphony Orchestra and Austin College. This summer's faculty of 14 included Austin College professors as well as music teachers from Sherman and McKinney, Texas. Read More

As we reflect on our students' many accomplishments over the 2022–2023 academic year, we're grateful for the supporters who make the Austin College experience possible.

With you by our side, we are able to:

Keep tuition affordable while sustaining the next-level Austin College education.

Provide financial aid to 100% of students.

Give varsity team experience to more than 350 student-athletes each year.

Your participation will transform students' lives today, so they can transform the world tomorrow. Support #RooNation!
